FRESH ROUTES

The holiday season is almost here — a time for cozy kitchens, shared meals, and the comfort of being together. But for many families in our community, the holidays can bring a very different feeling — stress. Food prices are higher than ever, and too many parents are forced to choose between paying bills and putting a special meal on the table.

 At Fresh Routes, we believe every family deserves to celebrate with dignity and joy. That's why, this year, we're setting out to provide over 300 families with full Holiday Meal Kits — complete with fresh produce, turkey or chicken, dessert, and a printed recipe to share.

 On Giving Tuesday (December 2), we'll be inviting our community to come together to make this happen.

✨ Until then, stay tuned for stories and ways to make your impact count — because this holiday season, you can be the reason a family gathers around a warm meal.

With gratitude,

 The Fresh Routes Team

Black Youth Mentorship and Leadership Program

Over the summer, we run a 6-week intensive mentorship program for Black High School Youth in Grade 10 and 11. This program is designed to socially and economically empower Black youth so they can meaningfully contribute to Canadian society. We have started recruiting for our 2026 cohort and are reaching out to high schools across Calgary to share our flyer. With your help, we hope to ensure that students who could benefit from culturally affirming mentorship are aware of this opportunity.

Registration link [BYMLP MENTEE RECRUITMENT 2026 - Application Deadline February 6, 2026 | Cumming School of Medicine | University of Calgary]

The program includes:

- Weekly workshops on diverse topics including university admissions, budgeting, financing education, literature reviews, career planning
- Research experience while working with a faculty member
- Weekly meeting with a community mentor
- Access to Black professionals and mentors across various fields
- A supportive space to grow confidence and community

Are you a Black High School Student in Grade 10 or Grade 11 looking for meaningful mentorship and paid work experience?

WE ARE RECRUITING MENTEES!

*We do not accept students who will be in summer school or travelling during the 6-week program

Deadline to Apply:
February 6, 2026

The poster features an illustration of a Black male student in a red shirt and blue pants holding a large white sheet of paper, and a Black female student in a red shirt sitting at a desk with a laptop. In the top right corner, there are two logos: the University of Calgary logo and the Black Youth Leadership Program logo. The background is a solid brown color.

Youth-Led Leadership Program

Subject: Invitation to Nominate Youth for Closer to Home's Youth-Led Leadership Program

Dear Community Partners,

Closer to Home is excited to announce the upcoming launch of our Youth-Led Leadership Program, designed to empower young people to build leadership skills, strengthen their voices, and make meaningful contributions to their communities. We are inviting community partners, service providers, and parents/guardians to nominate youth who may benefit from and be inspired by this opportunity.

This program is intended for youth ages 14–17, with a maximum of 15 participants in our inaugural cohort beginning January 2026.

Program Rationale

The Youth-Led Leadership Program was developed to:

- Create a safe, supportive environment for self-expression and idea-sharing.
- Empower youth to identify community needs, explore social issues, and take meaningful action.
- Strengthen peer connection, mentorship, and collaboration.
- Connect youth to resources and supports—including mental health services and community programs—that enhance their wellbeing and success.

Program Goals

Participants will have opportunities to:

- Build confidence and leadership capacity.
- Strengthen public speaking, communication, and problem-solving skills.
- Develop knowledge in self-advocacy and positive leadership practices.
- Gain confidence in discussing mental health and reducing stigma among their peers.
- Enhance self-awareness and interpersonal communication skills.
- Build teamwork, decision-making, and conflict-resolution abilities.
- Engage in civic and community involvement.
- Experience inclusive, youth-led leadership and peer mentorship.
- Design and lead a youth-driven community impact project.
- Demonstrate social-emotional competencies through hands-on activities.
- Improve their understanding of how to access supports and resources.
- Learn practical tools for navigating challenges and conflict.
- Plan and deliver a community impact project from start to finish.

Learning Outcomes

By the end of the program, participants will be able to:

- Demonstrate leadership through initiative, collaboration, and responsibility.
- Communicate effectively in a variety of group and community settings.
- Apply goal-setting, project planning, and problem-solving strategies to real-world scenarios.
- Understand and integrate empathy, equity, and inclusion into their leadership approach.
- Present a completed youth-led project to peers, families, community members, and partners.

Virtual Open Houses

To help youth and their families learn more about the program, Closer to Home will host a virtual open house on December 3, 2025 from 4:30-5:30pm. This session will provide an overview of the program, expectations, and the nomination/registration process. If you are interested in attending the open house, please email cchittick@closerhome.com to receive the link to the meeting.

Nomination Information

We kindly ask community partners/ service providers and parents to nominate youth who:

- Are motivated to grow as leaders,
- Are interested in community involvement,
- Show curiosity, creativity, or initiative,
- Or would benefit from a supportive space to build confidence and skills.

To submit a nomination or request more information, please contact us at viewpoints@closerhome.com.

We sincerely appreciate your ongoing partnership and support. Together, we can empower youth to become confident, engaged, and compassionate leaders in their communities.

Warm Regards,

The Viewpoints Team

John G. Diefenbaker Indigenous Student Community

Funded through the Neighbourhood Grant – Truth & Reconciliation Stream

Ribbon Hoodie Workshop – Building Community Through Creativity

Students from local high schools gathered for a Ribbon Hoodie Workshop that began with a smudge and continued with collaborative design and encouragement. Shared meals and conversation strengthened connections, and participants proudly showcased their finished hoodies—symbols of culture, creativity, and community pride.

“The workshop sparked excitement, with many asking, ‘When is the next one?’ The hoodies are now worn with pride, becoming conversation starters and symbols of cultural learning and community spirit.” – Indigenous Student Graduation Coach

Impact Highlights:

- Belonging & Visibility – Students felt seen, valued, and connected within their schools and neighbourhood.
- Cultural Preservation – Honoured traditions and passed knowledge between generations.
- Community Building & Social Support – Shared meals, gatherings, and cultural activities encouraged conversation, bonding, and expanded community ties.

Basic Swimming Skills for New Canadians

The Lifesaving Society's Swim to Survive® program focuses on three basic survival skills:

- Entering the water
- Treading water (surface support)
- Swimming 50 meters

This no-cost, introductory program is designed for newcomers to Canada, ages 3 and up. Participants will gain confidence in the water, learn important water safety tips, and practice basic skills such as floating, jumping in, and moving while wearing a lifejacket.

No equipment is needed. T-shirts and shorts will be provided.

Location: Village Square Leisure Centre, 2623 56 Street N.E.
